

Do you or a loved one have questions about adult care?

If you're supporting a loved one through their care journey, it can be hard to know where to start.

The great news is that Legal & General can offer you and your family practical support and guidance. We can help you to understand and find the appropriate care, plus explain your funding choices. Our friendly care experts are here to help no matter what stage you're at with your care journey.

Best of all, this service is complimentary so it won't cost you a thing to speak to our experts.

Call us today on 0800 060 8823

care.legalandgeneral.com/group-protection

Lines are open Monday to Friday, 9am–5pm.

Call charges will vary and we may record and monitor calls.

